LATEST PROCEDURES FOR ENDORSEMENT OF PREFERENTIAL CERTIFICATE OF ORIGIN FOR COMPANIES DURING THE CONDITIONAL MOVEMENT CONTROL ORDER (CMCO) PERIOD

Ministry of International Trade and Industry (MITI) would like to announce the latest procedures for endorsement of the Preferential Certificate of Origin (PCO) under the Free Trade Agreement (FTA) schemes during the Conditional Movement Control Order (CMCO) period that will take effect from 4 May 2020.

The implementation of the current procedures is key to ensure all import and export activities with the Free Trade Agreement (FTA) partner countries and the Generalised System of Preferences (GSP) donor countries can be continued.

PCO Endorsement for FTA and GSP schemes

In compliance with the CMCO, the PCO endorsement services will be done through back-office at Menara MITI and its Regional offices. Malaysian companies are advised to refer to the following process to endorse their PCO:
